A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Well, here we are. It's Lent again. It's the time of the Church Year that we focus our attention on the sacrifice Jesus made in order that we might experience to love of God more deeply. And, in order to express our thanks, it is also a time when many of us try to give something up in order to acknowledge His giving up His life for us. So, have you given up anything for Lent? It might be something like not eating chocolate until you eat that chocolate bunny on Easter day. Or it might be giving up smoking or drinking alcohol.

But, instead, have you ever thought about giving, instead of giving up? Giving, because He gave His life in order that we might receive forgiveness and God's love. What kind of things might that be?

How about giving to a local charity in order to help those who are less fortunate than you? Or, what about giving to earthquake relief funds? Or, giving some aid to the people in East Palestine. (Think of what it would have been like in Sandusky if one of the train cars that's went off the tracks here had been filled with toxic chemicals.) How about giving more time to the ministry of Trinity, or to work with other Lutheran congregations in the area for a joint ministry project.

Yes, we often give something up to acknowledge the solemnity of the season, that Jesus died so that we might have Eternal life. But it is also a joyous time, because His death bought for us eternal life.

Whether you give up something, or give something, let us remember that is an action that shows our appreciation and thanks for all that Jesus has done for us.

Have a blessed, faithful Lent.

Youth and Family

On Monday, February 20, some of our Sunday School kids came to Trinity for a day of fun and fellowship to learn about Mardi Gras, Fat Tuesday, and Ash Wednesday. They took a field trip to Providence Care Center to sing for the residents and were able to see Norm Stierhoff and sing for Paul Wiedenheft in his room. Next, they stopped at Toft's Dairy and got a cup of ice cream of their choice to have for lunch. The afternoon included making masks and having a Mardi Gras Parade, eating sausage and pancakes for lunch along with a King Cake were one lucky person at each table found a plastic baby figurine in their piece of cake. Tradition says that the person who finds the baby will have a year of good fortune. Pancake races, limbo, making a decoration and a Lenten placemat were some fun activities that filled their afternoon also. They got to watch the burning of the palm branches from last year and then they made the communion bread for Ash Wednesday's worship service. Their day concluded with an explanation of the Lenten display in the sanctuary and they put ashes on their foreheads to remind them of Ash Wednesday. They closed with a prayer circle. If you see any of the kids around, ask them how this event went and see if they remember what Lent is about. It would not have been possible without the help of some very wonderful people. They include Carrie Killingsworth, Carrie Wiedenheft, Tiffany Fisher, Tiffany's mom Marlene, Koral Russell, Mason Russell, Charlene Stierhoff, Cathy and Dave Wobser, Cindy Norman, Denise Casanova, Adele Hoffman, Carol Dahs, Pat Wiedenheft, Barb Sessler, and Bonnie Lieb. Thank you to them all for all they did to make the Day Camp a great success!

Another camp is being planned for April 7 and our focus will be on Good Friday and All of God's Creatures! So, during the month of March until Easter we will be collecting items to give to the Erie County Dog Pound. This is the wish list they have given us: bleach, trash bags, paper towels, laundry soap, dish soap, fabric softener sheets, puppy food, dog collars, rawhide chewies, and old blankets, towels, or sheets. There will be a large trash container in the upstairs gathering area to place your donations in. We thank you in advance for helping us with this project.

Sorry it has taken awhile, but we wanted to give you the total amount of diapers and wipes that were collected in January. There were 28 packs of diapers, and 44 packs of wipes, including a couple powders and shampoo. We would like to thank everyone who brought these in. They will be distributed to Children's Services and Project Noelle.

We would like to send a special Thank You out to Linda Gantz for her donation to the Sunday School teachers to purchase items for the kids for Easter, and to Russ Stephens and Nancy Vollmer for their donations of money and craft supplies to our Sunday School also. Thank you all for thinking of us.

A huge thanks goes out to all who supported the Sub sale. This year we made $400.00 that will be donated to Care and Share. Also, a great big Thank You goes out to the kids and parents who came to help make the subs and put the orders together; They all worked together to do God's Work with Our Hands to help others in our area when in need.

This year we will be joining Zion, Sandusky for their Tuesday evening Lenten Services. We will then be back to Trinity for Maundy Thursday and Good Friday services.

COUNCIL UPDATE

TRINITY CONGREGATION COUNCIL Meeting Highlights - February 16, 2023 - 7:00 pm (These are unapproved meeting minutes)

Attending: Jim Bertsch, Nancy Vollmer, Pat Wiedenheft, Millie McCready, Betsy Stierhoff, Carrie Wiedenheft, Pastor Ralph, and secretary, Carol Dahs. Not in Attendance: Kathy Bango

Meeting called to order by President – Carrie Wiedenheft

Opening devotions were given by Pat Wiedenheft

Minutes of previous meeting (January 2023) were reviewed. Nancy made a motion to accept the January meeting minutes. 2nd by Pat. Motion passed.

Treasurer's report for January 2023 was reviewed. Jim moved $20,000 from the checking account and opened a 6 month CD through Edward Jones at 4.45% interest rate. Nancy made a motion to accept the treasurer's report. 2nd by Betsy. Motion passed.

President's Report: Carrie reported that the Call Committee does have a name to discuss and see if they want to pursue an interview.

Pastor – P. Ralph is going to be back in the office on Mondays and Wednesdays starting in March.

Faith Builders – Pat Wiedenheft – There will be a day camp for the youth on Monday, February 20.

Mission Service – Betsy Stierhoff – She will try and connect with Jim and Bonnie this Sunday between services.

Property – Stanley came and fixed the automatic portico door on January 20, 2023. Gundlach has been in a few times to fix some minor things on the boiler. Travelers Ins was in and checked the boiler and it passed for another year. J&H was out and put some weather stripping on the outside of the two new front sanctuary doors. Jim said they seem to be helping so far. They also caulked under the new educational wing doors to help with the rain coming in under the doors. Jim stated that the cross at the end of the building is not lighting up. He will look at the timer upstairs and see if we need to have someone else look at it.

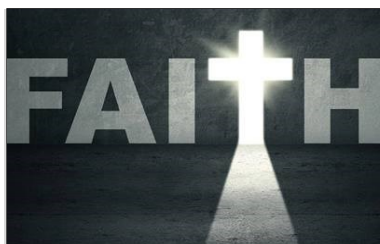

Stewardship and Finance -Jim Bertsch – New signature form was sent to Thrivent. The financial audit was done on February 11. There were just a couple little things that Shannon and Carol will look into but overall the audit went well. Dave Wobser and Millie McCready did do a watch of the Sunday donations being counted on February 12 as part of the audit guidelines. Everything there went well.

Witness and Welcome – Millie McCready – Millie tried to visit Norm Stierhoff, but he was not in his room. She was able to see Paul Wiedenheft for a short while.

Worship and Music – Nancy Vollmer – Nancy attended the Good Friday meeting at Zion. Zion is looking at doing something from 1-3pm on Good Friday. They invited Trinity members who wanted to join the choir that day to do so. There will be a small soup meal at 6:00 pm prior to the Lenten Services at Zion.

Old Business – Carol is working on getting the new directory listing ready for printing. Denise Casanova freshened up the outside nativity set. She did not charge the church for this. It looks very nice.

New Business – A facility use form was submitted and approved for use on March 12. It was agreed to once again put Easter Flowers for sale in the bulletin. It was suggested that we list events happening at the LOMO (Lutheran Outdoor Ministries in Ohio) in the bulletin. Carol received a notice on a recall for the pads on the AED unit. She completed this and returned the paperwork. New pads will be sent free of charge. It was then discussed that we need to make more individuals aware of where our first aid equipment is and how to use it. Pat made a motion that we set up some training for the AED. 2nd by Nancy. Motion passed. Carrie will contact Gayle Thompson and see if she would like to help us get this done. It was asked that we get more people to run the video computer, preferably at early service so when the kids sing this could be included. Printed instructions would be very helpful. Carol will contact Cathy Wobser about this. It was discussed about putting the bulletin and songs on the screen. Again, volunteers are need to run this.
